

Student Recruitment Events

Fall 2025 Schedule

Global Reach, Personal Connections

In a world of endless scrolls and swipes, personal connections are more powerful than ever.

For over one in three prospective international students, meeting with admissions staff at fairs and info sessions is a pivotal part of their decision-making process (QS International Student Survey 2024).

Connecting face-to-face builds trust, answers questions, and leaves lasting impressions – turning interested students into enrolled students.

Studying abroad is a life-changing decision. Help them make it with confidence by attending a student recruitment event in their hometown. Offer clarity, foster confidence, and showcase the unparalleled value of your institution. Because when it comes to their dreams, a direct conversation is the most powerful tool.

“We were so impressed with the turnout and interactions at QS student recruitment events that we signed up for more events this recruitment cycle. The QS fairs are well attended, incredibly organized and have resulted in sensational prospective student leads.”

James McCarty
